DANIELSON

Another large audience saw the final production here of the Magic Ship at the Orpheum theatre Friday evening. This musical extravaganza has proved a highly pleasing entertainment. The numbers that held particular appeal were the deck scene at the opening, where opportunity is given for the introduction of a number of the leading characters, the Whitehead House, the Jacks and Dolls, the Wild Women, the Clown Brigade, the Coquettes, the Winter Girls, the Poppy Dancers and the Little Spark of Love featuring Carrol Allen, Harrison, and Miss Alice Duhamel and the Rose Maids in the closing number.

After a prayer service at the Blake home in Brooklyn, today (Saturday), the body of Mrs. Amanda Blake, wife of Rev. E. A. Blake, D. D., will be taken today to Ipswich, Mass., for burial. A. F. Wood is in charge of the funeral arrangements in Danielson. A funeral service is to be held in Ipswich.

A five-ton truck owned by the United States Tire company, of Hartford, and used to carry materials from this town to the Hartford Rubber Works plant in Hartford came to grief in Manchester while coasting down a hill west of Laurel park. The driver of the truck, John Marston, of 2 Willow street, Hartford, threw out the speed and was letting the big truck coast down the hill, which the truck was doing nicely until it became necessary to ease the speed by applying the brakes, which action caused the truck to skid.

In turning over the truck blocked the trolley line and was sent out to clear the tracks. After the truck had been righted the load that had been scattered over the vicinity was reloaded and the truck proceeded to Hartford under its own power.

Dr. Hays B. Campbell, of Norwich, will come to Danielson Tuesday next, to hold another clinic at the assessors' office in the town hall building. The clinic will be in the interest of those who are suffering from incipient cases of tuberculosis or who are suspected of being infected with the disease. These clinics are free to all and any person at all times may see him or her condition may be ascertained without cost to themselves.

Miss Miriam Roomhower, visiting nurse, will be in attendance. The clinic will be held at the usual time—10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Milk dealers from this section have in some cases been applying to Hartford for renewal of their licenses as milk dealers, not knowing that the supreme court of the state declared the law unconstitutional under which they were licensed. This decision was rendered by the supreme court of the United States, August 1, and will continue in that capacity during the campaign.

A meeting of teachers and officers of the Congregational Sunday school was held Friday evening. Teachers who attended the summer school at the Connecticut college related their experiences, and a basket lunch was served.

Several of Killiney's teachers are going to New Haven the first of the coming week to attend the summer school at Yale university. The list includes Mrs. Cora Loebe, Miss Elizabeth M. Woodworth, Miss Grace Stanton, Miss Ames Jacobs, Miss Mae Hammett, Miss Myra Chase and Miss Mildred Kelley.

Nearly two score children will arrive here from New York Tuesday evening next, probably on the train reaching Danielson just before 6 a. m. These are the Fresh Air kiddies who are coming out of the Tribune Fresh Air Fund arrangement with local people who will open their homes to these little people, who are to remain for two weeks. Some of the children arriving here will be placed in homes in Brooklyn. Others will go to Dayville.

Excepting for the operation of a small amount of machinery, the plant of the Assawamuck Woolen company at Dayville is closed for the time being. The decided curtailment of activities by the Dayville plant, which has been very busy for several years, is in line with conditions throughout the woolen industry in New England. The Assawamuck Woolen company plant is the last of the woolen mills in this town to curtail its production.

L. E. Kennedy was at Plainfield Friday morning to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Matilda Cheverie, who died at her home in that place.

Putnam this week for Sunday's Harbor, Mrs. where they will pass the summer.

Mr. Snow left Thursday for New Hampshire where he is to be a supervisor in a boys' camp.

Sunday afternoon Thomas McDermott's Grosvenordale baseball team will meet the team representing the Slater A. A. of Webster. Thus far this season the Grosvenordale team has not lost a game, and their schedule has included some of the fastest teams in this section of New England. The manager of the Webster aggregation has written Mr. McDermott that the Webster team will be composed of the fastest group of ball tossers that it is possible to get together, and that they are out to spoil the record of the locals. Just to prove his point the Webster manager announces that he will have for his battery Horan and Connors, the star pitcher and catcher of the Holy Cross College team. Manager McDermott will have his regular pitcher, Tunny, who has achieved 41 strikeouts in the last three games, and Phillips will be on the receiving end. In addition to this game the Grosvenordale team is scheduled for two games on the 5th. They will meet Goodyear on the Goodyear grounds in the morning and in the afternoon will play the Ashland team at Jewett City.

The Putnam winter chautauqua association met Thursday night and perfected organization. The following officers and committee chairmen were elected: President, Mayor Alvin W. Marcy; vice president, John G. Johnson, John Ash; secretary, W. E. Moss; treasurer, Miss Marion Warren; chairman of ticket committee, D. B. Gilbert; assistant chairman of ticket committee, C. DIVISIONS WITHIN IRELAND

OBSTRUCT PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT

London, July 3.—Forty articles devoted to the relations between Great Britain and the United States and to American affairs generally are published in a special "American edition" of the London Times this morning. Chief among the contributions is one by Viscount Bryce, former ambassador to the United States, who writes on the Irish question and the attitude of the American people toward this issue.

"What the American people ought to know, but apparently do not know," says Viscount Bryce, "is that the great majority of the English people desire to give Ireland the fullest measure of freedom within the empire. But it is the divisions within Ireland—in the lack of any good will on England's part—that there lies practically the only obstacle which still delays that peaceful settlement which the British democracy sincerely desires."

Many of the articles are by prominent Americans. Franklin K. Lane, former secretary of the interior, writes on the world's oil supply, warning England of the danger to the peace of any one power obtaining control of the world's oil supply.

America's position regarding the peace treaty and the league of nations is also dealt with in the articles, as well as the cost of living and various industries, particularly shipping.

ABOLISH HEARINGS BEFORE SPECIAL INQUIRY BOARDS

New York, July 2.—Commissioner of Immigration Wallis announced today that the department of labor had abolished hearings before boards of special inquiry at Ellis Island in the cases of male aliens, 35 years old or more, who are brought to the United States by sons living here.

The immigration law exempts such fathers from the provisions of the literacy test, but heretofore, Mr. Wallis explained, their entry has been delayed pending hearings before the special board.
